LOYOLA COLLEGE : A QUALITY INSTITUTE FOR EDUCATION

LOYOLA COLLEGE

Loyola College, Vettavalam (LCV) was established in the academic year 2009 - 2010 to educate and empower the rural poor, the first-generation learners, the Dalits, the Tribals, women and the marginalized youth of Northern Tamil Nadu. It is a pioneering initiative of the Chennai Mission of the Jesuits under the leadership of Rev.Fr. Victor Arulappan S.J., the first Superior of Chennai Mission. In December 2019, the Chennai Mission was elevated to Jesuit Chennai Province, under the able leadership of Rev.Dr.Jebamalai Rudayaraj, S.J., the first Provincial of Chennai Province.

The Government of Tamil Nadu through its G.O.No. 164 of the Department of Higher Education (E1) dated 4th June 2009, granted approval for starting Loyola College of Art and Science as a Self - Financing Co-education College. The Thiruvalluvar University, Vellore granted Affiliation to Loyola College on 24th June 2009. Since its inception Loyola College, Vettavalam is functioning with full vigour and zeal.

MOTTO : Let Your Light Shine

Through quality education, value orientation, spiritual and psychological initiatives and character formation the students of LCV set good example to others and let their light shine.

VISION : Educate Empower Employ

Students are trained to apply their knowledge through various activities and through career guidance. They are trained for Job Placement.
